

ORDINANCE NO. 00197

An Ordinance relating to collective bargaining; establishing and authorizing a King County Bargaining Agent to negotiate on behalf of the County and prescribing the duties and functions thereof.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE KING COUNTY COUNCIL:

Section 1. There is hereby established an Ordinance for Collective Bargaining and, pursuant to the provisions of Section 890 of the King County Charter, the King County Executive is designated Bargaining Agent for King County.

Sec. 2. Said Bargaining Agent is hereby authorized on behalf of the County of King to meet, confer and negotiate with bargaining representatives of the public employees of the County of King for the purpose of collective bargaining as contemplated by Chapter 108, Laws of Washington 1967, Extraordinary Session, and the King County Charter, Section 890, and to timely recommend to the King County Council proposed wages, hours and other conditions of County employment for the purposes of County budgets and such collective bargaining agreement or agreements as may be required and authorized by Ordinance.

Sec. 3. Any act pursuant to the authority and prior to the effective date of this Ordinance is hereby ratified and confirmed.

PASSED this 20th day of October, 1969.
